TERMS OF SALE

1. This is a public auction and mail bid sale, conducted by PONTERIO & ASSOCIATES, INC. Subject to our consent, liberty for bidding by sellers and/or consignors is hereby reserved.
2. A 10% buyers charge will be added to the hammer price of each lot. This charge will be added to all invoices.
3. Subject to paragraph 8, all material shall be sold to the highest bidder as determined by the auctioneer. If any dispute arises during or immediately after the sale of a lot, the auctioneer shall have the right to recall the lot and put it up for sale again. In all cases, auctioneer's decision shall be final. For the bidder's protection, NO "UNLIMITED" or "BUY" BIDS WILL BE ACCEPTED. Bids are to be made in U.S. currency only.
4. Terms of this sale are strictly cash with payment due immediately upon receipt of invoice. Payment by check must be payable in U.S. currency only and drawn on a U.S. Bank. NO credit card purchases will be accepted. Title to all lots remains with consignor until paid in full.
5. Minors are expressly forbidden to bid in this sale.
6. Floor bidders and mail bidders not known to us must furnish satisfactory credit references, sufficiently in advance of the sale to allow for checking, or a deposit equal to 25% of their total bids for that session(s) before such bids can be accepted. Deposits submitted will be applied to purchases and any unused portion of such deposit will be promptly refunded.
7. All bids must be per lot as numbered in this catalogue. No lots will be broken. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless auctioneer directs otherwise.
8. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to the sale and to open the bidding on any lot at a reasonable price.
9. All items in this catalogue are guaranteed to be genuine unless specifically stated otherwise in the lot description. Claims to the contrary must be made in writing within three days after receipt of the lot. Any returned lot must be intact and in its original unopened holder. No lot may be returned without prior written consent. In no event may any lot be returned after thirty (30) days from the date of sale. LATE REMITTANCE FOR PURCHASES CONSTITUTES JUST CAUSE TO ABROGATE ALL RETURN PRIVILEGES FOR ANY REASON.
10. Grading is a subjective description in the opinion of the cataloguer, as to the state of preservation of a particular coin or lot. The term "Proof" or "Specimen" is used to describe a method of manufacture, and not a grade or condition. Such terms are the opinion of the cataloguer and shall be deemed to be part of the description and not an attribution. No warranty, whether expressed or implied, is made with respect to such adjectival descriptions, which can and do vary among experts.
11. This is not an approval sale. Bidders are expected to promptly purchase all lots awarded to them by the auctioneer. Floor bidders are encouraged to carefully examine all lots in which they are interested in purchasing, since NO LOT MAY BE RETURNED BY FLOOR BUYERS, INCLUDING THOSE LOTS WHERE THE BIDDER IS ACTING AS AGENT FOR ANOTHER PARTY, OR BY MAIL BIDDERS WHO HAVE EXAMINED THE LOT PRIOR TO THE SALE.
12. Mail bids will be accepted from those who can not attend the sale in person. Bids for all lots must be submitted in even dollar amounts, or they will be reduced to the next even dollar amount. Successful mail bidders will be awarded the lot at a nominal advance over the second highest mail or floor bid. When identical bids are received by the auctioneer, for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid. A floor bidder must bid higher than the highest mail bidder to be awarded any lot. The auctioneer reserves the right to refuse any bids, which he, in his sole discretion, feels are not made in good faith.
13. The auctioneer can not be responsible for errors in bidding. Please make certain that you bid on the correct lot and that your bid is the maximum that you are willing to pay.
14. An estimate is provided for each lot. This estimate represents, in the opinion of the cataloguer, the current market value of the lot. Lots may, of course, sell for above or below this estimate.
15. All photographs in this catalogue are of the actual items being sold.
16. Postage, insurance and sales tax, if required by law to be collected, will be added to the invoice for any lot(s) invoiced to successful bidders. All lots delivered in the state of California are subject to applicable sales tax. Individuals purchasing lots for resale must submit an exemption certificate, signed by the purchaser or his agent and recognized by the state of California, with their current resale certificate number or be subject to the sales tax.
17. We reserve the right to require payment in full before delivering any lot to a successful bidder. It is the buyer's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his/her possession. Risk of loss is on the buyer. All lots sent to foreign countries, including Canada and Mexico, will be billed an additional 1/2 of 1% for insurance. The minimum insurance fee is $5.00. Please send shipping instructions. Normally all lots will be sent via registered mail.
18. In the event a bidder fails to make remittance promptly, auctioneer reserves the right to resell the merchandise and bidder agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the previously successful bid.
19. If the invoice for the auction is not paid for in full, when due, the unpaid balance will bear interest at the highest rate permitted by law until it is paid in full. If the matter is referred to an attorney for collection, bidder agrees to pay all attorney fees, court costs and other costs incurred by Ponterio & Associates, Inc. The courts of San Diego County, California shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue over any suit initiated by Ponterio & Associates, Inc. to collect past due invoices and the service of process by certified/registered mail, return receipt requested, shall be sufficient to confer "in personam" jurisdiction over bidder.
20. Auctioneer reserves the right to postpone the sale by auction of the property, for a reasonable period of time, as the result of any act of war, natural calamity or significant relevant event, which, in the judgment of auctioneer, reasonably exercised, make it inadvisable to hold the auction as scheduled.
21. Our ultimate liability for any item is the price paid.
22. By bidding in this sale, bidder personally guarantees payment; if a corporation is the bidder, the officers and/or principals of the corporation agree to personally guarantee payment.
23. All bid sheets submitted by mail bidders must be signed. Company bids must be submitted with the signature of a duly authorized agent of such company.
24. Bidding in this sale constitutes acceptance by the bidder of all the aforementioned terms and conditions of sale.

INSTRUCTIONS TO NEW MAIL BIDDERS

Bidding by mail permits you to participate in an auction as though you were attending it in person. The procedure is really quite simple. You tell us what you want, and the maximum amount you are willing to pay. We then, as your personal agent, try to buy the items listed for you at the lowest possible price.

The enclosed mail bid form has two sides for you to fill in. The front side provides all the information we will need to register you as a bidder, execute your bids for you and deliver your lots to you if you are a successful bidder. Please answer all the questions that may apply to you. DON'T FORGET TO SIGN YOUR BID SHEET.

On the back side are pairs of columns where you may list your bids. After carefully reading the lot description, write down the lot number and the maximum amount you are willing to pay for that lot. Don't forget that a 10% buyer's fee will be added to your actual purchase price if you are the lucky bidder. Continue to list lot numbers and bids for each of the lots you are interested in buying.

LOT	BID
95	300
153	1500
308	600

When we receive your bid sheet, we will record your bids at the amount you have authorized us to bid for you, and we will, in addition, note any lots where an increase is authorized if absolutely needed to win the lot. For example, if the sample bid sheet shown at the right were yours, we would enter your bid on lot #7 as $500. If yours was the highest bid received, you would be the purchaser at $500. (plus 10%) or perhaps even less. If the second highest bid received on the lot was substantially less, your bid would be reduced to a "normal" increment above that second-highest bid, just as it would be if you were present at the sale yourself to execute your own bids. If you have authorized a percentage increase on the front side of your bid sheet and the bidding by others has exceeded your basic bid, we will then, as your personal agent, increase your bid to the minimum amount necessary to obtain the lot for you. The authorized increase will never be used except when your basic bid is exceeded.

Before you mail your bid sheet, do be sure to check it over to make certain you have bid on the correct lot(s) and that your bids are the ones you are both willing and able to pay for. Enjoy the catalogue, place bids on everything you would like to buy. If time is running out and you feel your bid sheet may arrive too late to be included, you may call our office between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, giving us the lot numbers and amount you will pay for each lot, over the telephone. Please make sure you immediately send in your bid sheet for confirmation. Also, you may FAX your bid sheet to us. As your personal agents we wish you every success.

THE DUTCH EAST INDIAMAN "VLIEGENTHART"

The Dutch East India Company (Nederlandse Verenigde Oost-Indische Compagnie - VOC), or Dutch United East India Company to use its' full name, was organized in 1602 to coordinate trade between the Dutch provinces and the Far East. The organization was funded and controlled by 6 Dutch "Chambers"; the Chamber of Amsterdam had 50% control, Middleberg (or Zeeland) 25%, and Delft, Rotterdam, Hoorn and Enkhuizen each had 6.25%. Each of these organizations received the same percentage of profits.

Trade with the Indies depended heavily on coinage from Europe. Most of the Dutch East India Company ships carried chests of gold or silver coins for the purchase of spices, porcelain, silk, tea, etc., and specific commodities were paid for with certain coins only; for example, textiles from India and tea from China were purchased with silver coins, most frequently Spanish American "cob" 8 Reales, whereas sellers of other products would accept only gold coins. For this specific need, various Dutch provinces struck gold Ducats solely for the East Indies trade.

Representatives of the East India Company in Batavia would advise the Executive Committee of the VOC of their anticipated need for coin for the coming trading year, and the various Chambers were called upon to furnish coin based on their level of involvement in the organization. The coinage from the various Chambers was gathered together with other cargo being sent to the East for trade or supplies and carefully packed; coins were placed in large wooden chests with 2 locks, which were wrapped in cloth and often reinforced with iron bands or rope. These "trade" chests with weights of 225 to 300 pounds or so apiece were stored in the cabin of the Captain before sailing.

The "Vliegenthart"("Flying Hart") was a typical East Indiaman; this armed merchant ship was about 145 feet long, 36 wide, and weighed about 850 tons, carrying approximately 42 guns. The ship was launched at Middelburg for the Zeeland Chamber of the VOC in 1730, making its' first voyage to the East in 1731, returning to Europe in 1734. On February 3, 1735, "Vliegenthart", with 256 people aboard and a cargo of wood, iron, bricks, and gunpowder, in addition to chests of money, and the "Anna Catharina" left the roadstead of Rammekens and headed for the English Channel, the start of the 7-months journey to Batavia. A pilot boat, "Mercurius", had been ordered to help guide the 2 Indiamen between the sandbanks and the narrow and treacherous Deurloo to the North Sea during a gale. Three hours after sailing, at 5 P.M., "Anna Catharina", sailing off her navigational course, hit a sandbank, the Bar of Deurloo. Within 2 hours the ship was completely beaten to pieces by the storm and fierce waves; all hands were lost.

The "Vliegenthart" struck the same sandbar shortly after the "Anna Catharina", having the hull holed; after about 4 hours, the ship worked loose from the sandbar, and the crew cast anchors that evening on the Schooneveld, doing everything possible to save their ship and lives, firing cannons regularly in distress.

Shortly after, the "Vliegenthart" sank near the sandbar, and, as the "Mercurius" was unable to come to the assistance of the stricken ship because of the rough seas, all aboard were killed.

The "Vliegehthart" had gone down in 10 fathoms of water in an area with treacherous currents and strong tides, and the VOC set out to recover as much of their lost cargo as possible. During 1735 and 1736, salvage efforts were undertaken by various divers, with little being recovered, except that a veteran English diver named William Evans, using a "diving barrel" (see illustration 1), did bring up 850 bottles of wine but little else! Further salvage efforts were abandoned by the VOC, and "Vliegenthart" lay lost in the mud and sand near the Bar of Deurloo.

1. Contemporary engraving of a diving barrel similar to that used by William Evans

In February of 1979, the Rijksmuseum Amsterdam approached Rex Cowan, a well known English ship hunter, about possibly undertaking the hunt for the "Vliegenthart" and conducting salvage operations. He set up a diving expedition team within a few months, and, operating out of Vlissingen with a succession of diving boats, began the search. Using clues from old maps and records from various archives, they began searching narrow lanes of sea in a rectangular area. The most modern technology was employed in the hunt, as the team was convinced that the wreck was buried in sand and mud. At the end of the Summer of 1981, the wreck was located in the last area of the target "box" to be searched, and various artifacts, such as coins and cannons, confirmed that the "Vliegenthart" had been found.

In 1982, a catamaran specially designed and built as a diving platform was fitted with an airlift and large suction pump to clear sand and mud from the wreck. In addition to limited visibility and strong tidal currents, the wreck site was covered with old fishing nets, and the expedition members noted various evidence of damage to the site from fishing trawlers and freelance divers. During the first months of salvage efforts, a wide range of trade materials, guns, tableware, and personal items were recovered. In 1983, the first of 3 chests containing trade money was found, still sealed with contents and packaging intact; the lid of this unique find was carefully removed to reveal that the contents had been packed among oblong pieces of peat. This chest contained several thousand 8 Reales "cobs" from the mint of Mexico City, as well as 2,000 Ducats from Holland and Utrecht dated 1729. The second recovered chest of official "trade" coins had smashed on the sea bottom and has only been partially salvaged; the third chest, recovered intact in 1992, contained Ducats from West Friesland and Utrecht, and a mix of silver "cobs" from Mexico and other coins.

During 1990 and 1991, a number of smaller boxes of different sizes and shapes were found containing silver "Rider" Ducatoons of various Dutch provinces. As the export of these particular coins was forbidden at time, these coins, mostly in mint condition, must have been smuggled aboard for private sale in the East (see illustrations 2 and 3).

2. One of the wooden boxes of smuggled silver "Rider" Ducatoons

3. The remains of a wooden box with illegal Ducatoons laid in rows

As living conditions for crew members and officers of East Indiamen were not very pleasant and with low wages, it is not suprising that people would try to supplement their income whenever possible. One way of doing this was to take silver Ducatoons, worth 66 Stuivers in the Netherlands at the beginning of the 18th. Century, to the East, where the rates varied considerably; the VOC cashier in Batavia would pay 75 Stuivers for the same coin. Another means of making money from these Ducatoons was to accept Bills of Exchange in Batavia which paid 4% interest for the time between receipt of the Bill and actual payment against it in the Netherlands. Although this illicit trade in silver Ducatoons was known to VOC officials, some of whom lined their own pockets in this matter, and documented in VOC records, there had never been much physical evidence of it until the recovery of the "Vliegenthart". A sister ship of the "Vliegenthart", "Hillegom", which sank off the the Dutch coast in 1736, had no coinage listed in the cargo manifests, but more than 4,000 "Riders" were recovered from the wreck, mostly packed in tin boxes with names or initials of addressees in Batavia!

The finding of the "Vliegenthart" and the recovery of its' cargo and other artifacts has increased our knowledge and understanding of many facets of trade between Europe and the East during the 18th. Century. All of the recovered materials have been carefully cataloged and studied, with the vast majority of the artifacts now in the National Maritime Museum and the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam, the Municipal Museum in Vlissingen, and the Royal Coin Cabinet in Leyden, as well as other museums in the Netherlands. Recovery work continues on the site of the "Vliegenthart" and is funded by the sale of recovered material. Additionally, various studies of this wreck will be published from time to time.
